

Luke Gower, ASPAC LIBOR Solution Lead, KPMG Australia

Luke Gower's career has revolved around financial economics. He holds a PhD in Economics from the Australian National University and he spent a total of 8 years in various analytical roles at the Reserve Bank of Australia (RBA). His service included a secondment to the Commonwealth Treasury as the RBA's representative on the Financial System Guarantees Inquiry and a period at the Financial Stability Institute of the BIS. He has also run quantitative risk management teams at one of Australia's largest commercial banks. Luke has been an Adjunct Fellow at Macquarie University, where he taught market risk modelling in the Masters of Applied Finance program. He has also consulted on macroeconomic and financial programs for the Asian Development Bank

Daryl Pereira, Partner Cyber Security, KPMG Singapore

Daryl Pereira is a Partner and Head of the Cybersecurity practice at KPMG in Singapore, where he leads a team focusing on Cybersecurity Strategy & Governance, Technology Risk, Business Resiliency, Third-party Risk, IT Regulatory Compliance, Ethical Hacking & Red Teaming and Software Licencing & Asset Management.

Jan Reinmueller, Partner Innovation, KPMG Singapore

Jan Reinmueller heads KPMG Digital Village, he is also the co-lead for KPMG Global Innovation Network. He helps organizations in co-creating radical new or optimizing existing business models that help corporate clients outpace the competition and create lasting impact. Jan is a published author specialising in the areas of Fintech and emerging technology.

---