

If you cannot view this mail please click here.

Opinion

Decision time

In recent years both Singapore and Hong Kong have emerged as hot beds for so-called 'boutique' investment management firms; a trend that stems from factors including the cities' pedigrees for financial talent...

Featured stories from the March 2015 issue of Asia Asset Management

- Gaining momentum
- Too many eggs in one basket
- Capitalising on inefficiencies in China
- Progress and performance

Latest News

China confirms Shenzhen Stock Connect to arrive this year

| 6 March 2015

Market Access: Head of CSRC says further details will be announced on scheme in first half

Hedge fund investors eye Asian opportunities

| 6 March 2015

Hedge Funds: China and India among most closely-watched markets, research shows

China's HFT said to name new GM

| 5 March 2015

Going Places: Ex Invesco Great Wall executive said to take helm following Tian Ren Can's departure

AXA appoints new Asia CEO

| 5 March 2015

Going Places: Jean-Louis Laurent Josi succeeds departing Mike Bishop

FOCUS ON BOUTIQUES

Breaking the chains

The so-called "great rotation" of investor capital from bonds into equities is a phenomenon, at least in theory, that should play into the hands of the asset management industry's boutique players...

Unsubscribe to this mailing list

COPYRIGHT © 2015 ASIA ASSET MANAGEMENT. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

1701 Singa Commercial Centre, 148 Connaught Road West, Hong Kong Tel: (852) 2547-7331 E-mail: enquiries@asiaasset.com