

Value Investing

Cherry picking

Value investing is one of the investment disciplines that should in theory be tailor-cut for Asia's markets. Highly inefficient bourses with a large retail component whose investment decisions are driven by speculation, rumour, emotion, misguided optimism, and sheer herd instinct...

Featured stories from the October 2015 issue of Asia Asset Management

- Fingers burnt
- Silver lining
- Seize the day
- Raising the bar

Latest News

GPIF raises exposure to offshore fixed income

| 6 October 2015

Pensions: Japanese pension giant has appointed a roster of active and passive investment managers to run its newly-launched offshore bond mandates

UBS Frontier Platform launches in Asia

| 6 October 2015

Fund Administration: Platform allows managers to utilise automated processes, streamline workflows and mitigate risk

Henderson makes two new hires to bolster Asian equities team

| 6 October 2015

Going Places: Wee May Ling joins as an investment manager, and Mervyn Koh has been hired as an associate investment manager

PE Panorama: Testing the theory

| 5 October 2015

Private Equity: Could a large and powerful fund such as RRJ Capital's latest offering prise open doors hitherto locked against GPs in Asia Pacific?

Asia Asset Management
2015 Fund Manager Survey
results now available

Click here for details

Asia Asset Management 20th anniversary

Asia Asset Management
The Journal of Investments & Pensions

ROUNDTABLES & EVENTS 2015

- » The 11th Annual Brunei Roundtable \(Oct 19\)
- » 2015 Alternative Investment Days in Greater China \(Oct 23\)
- » The 11th Annual Taiwan Roundtable \(Oct 27\)
- » The 2nd Taiwan ETF Forum \(Oct 28\)
- » The 8th Annual Thailand Roundtable \(Nov 10\)